

FEATURED

Trade Policies

PwC Manufacturing Outlook

Human Resources & The Workforce

Artificial Intelligence

Foreign Earnings

Why 2019 was a Winner for Trump Trade Policies

Today's monthly (and yearly) U.S. trade figures show that President Trump is entitled to major bragging rights when it comes to the most important trade policy test of all -- whether the economy can grow acceptably as Washington policy decisions rein in the trade deficit.

Read more

Tweet

Industrial Manufacturing Outlook

PwC released their 2019 year-end M&A analysis for the industrial manufacturing sector. You can view the full findings here.

Read more

Tweet

Unlock Business Value through Opportunity Employment

Manufacturers can generate business value and close the manufacturing skills gap through Opportunity Employment.

Read more

Tweet

Over 60% of business leaders urgently need a strategy for AI use, BUT only half of their organizations actually have a plan

How can your enterprise get ahead of the competition with artificial intelligence?

Why Use AI Enterprise

84% of global enterprise leaders believe the use of AI in their business will give them a competitive advantage but few have acted on this.

View Infographic

Tweet

Tax Strategies for Foreign Earnings

After a one-time break to bring back cash, a detailed plan is needed going forward.

Read more

Tweet

NEWS

3.7 Million Jobs Lost to China

Since 2001 3.7 million jobs have been lost to China's imports, 700,000 of them in the first two years of Trump Presidency.

Read more

Tweet

January 2020 Manufacturing ISM® Report on Business®

New orders and production growing; raw materials inventories contracting; customers' inventories low, exports and imports growing.

Read more

Tweet

Magazine Issue December 2019

Visit our website

Subscribe today