

Ways Manufacturing Employers Can Create Fair Pay

Many industries experience pay gaps, namely manufacturing, which had a 22.9% gender pay gap in 2020, above the national average of 18%.

Read More

Tweet

War in Ukraine Drives Clean Energy Alternatives

Russia's invasion of Ukraine has accelerated the push for energy independence as a measure of national security.

Learn More

Tweet

Why Veterans Should Turn to Manufacturing

Manufacturing provides a natural working environment for veterans to succeed and prosper once returning to civilian life.

Learn More

Tweet

Constant Disruption May Be the Supply Chain New Normal

Since March 2020, the supply chain has been rocked by constant crises. Unfortunately, the near-term forecast is for more of the same.

Learn More

Tweet

NEWSAnd More

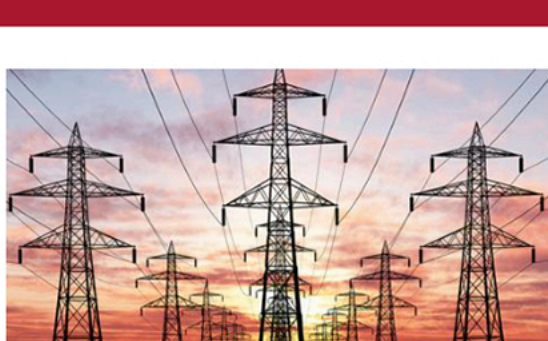

Strategy Gaps Drive Industrial Manufacturing M&A

In 2023, industrial manufacturers will look to M&A to fill strategic gaps and manage supply chain risk profiles.

Read More

Tweet

Maintenance Price Rises for $\leq 45\%$ Energy Companies

45% of energy and oil & gas companies have seen above-inflation increases in maintenance costs, McKinsey survey finds.

Read More

Tweet

Report Identifies How Manufacturers Increase Resilience

Report by the Manufacturers Alliance Foundation and Roland Berger identifies how manufacturers increase competitiveness and resilience.

Read More

Tweet

How AI Enhanced Democratized Data Helps Boost Productivity

As AI, ML and process automation (PA) move into the mainstream manufacturers are seeking practical applications to leverage data insights.

Read More

Tweet