

Be in the Know Automotive News

How Tactile Sensors Pave the Way for Smarter Cars

Tactile sensors will give cars a sense of touch, letting them understand the road, and improve safety and autonomy.

Read more

Beyond the EV: Taking Control of Sustainability Programs

Companies looking to set and meet sustainability goals must build a program informed by personalized data.

Read more

MBSE Drives Innovation for Automotive Manufacturers

The potential of model-based systems engineering to revolutionize automotive design ensures reliability in next-generation vehicles.

Read more

New Tech Empowers HJ1 to Secure Tier 1 Auto Contract

With Pico MES, HJ1 delivered 2K error-free parts, digitized 151 workflows, and connected 12 workstations for quality production in 9 months.

Read more

New Machine for the Production of Robust Hydrogen Tanks

Leifeld Metal Spinning is launching an innovative forming machine that meets these requirements and helps to reduce CO2 emissions.

Read more

Six Priorities for Auto Suppliers Transitioning to EVs

Global automakers are making the transition to electric vehicle (EV) manufacturing.

Read more

