

Manufacturing's Weekly Insights

Automation Can Help to Survive Tariffs, Labor Shortages

Among heightened industry volatility, U.S. manufacturers can rely on transformation, innovation, and automation for stability.

The Toll on US Manufacturers

AI's Promise: Are Businesses Capturing True Value?

AI is revolutionizing industrial automation, yet its potential is untapped. Businesses can leverage it strategically to drive real impact.

AI Adoption Soars

NEWSAnd More

Real-Time Visibility Is Manufacturing's Next Advantage

Real-time visibility helps manufacturers shift from reactive fixes to proactive decisions, unlocking resilience, speed and greater control.

An Ever-Changing Industry

CMMC Certification Is No Longer Optional

CMMC compliance is no longer an option. Contractors who delay certification risk losing contracts, revenue, and long-term competitiveness.

The Time To Act Is Now

If you would like to contribute to Manufacturing's Weekly Insights with an article, case study, press release, whitepaper or more, please contact Susan Poeton, Publisher via email at spoeton@industrytoday.com

View Full Press Releases

Fathom Manufacturing Partners with Gopher Motorsports

Fathom Digital Manufacturing fuels the future of engineering with Gopher Motorsports Partnership.

Read More

Rootstock Named an ERP Leader by Nucleus Research

Rootstock earns top ranking for its AI-powered, decision-ready ERP—purpose-built for product companies on the Salesforce Platform.

Read More